EXPECTATIONS

- 1. We request that all players follow all course rules including those pertaining to Dress code, Golf etiquette and Cart safety. Violations of these or other course rules may result in the removal of that individual or group. We cannot be responsible for injuries and/or damage, as a result of improper conduct while on the golf course.

- 2. Alcoholic beverages must be purchased from the Clubhouse, the “9th Hole Snack Shack” or Beverage carts. No outside beverages are permitted. No personal coolers are permitted.

- 3. Speed of play is important. A tournament can only go as fast as the slowest group. Golfers are urged to keep up with other groups.

- 4. SOFT SPIKES PLEASE! Metal spikes are not allowed on the course or in the clubhouse. Players with metal spikes will be required to replace them before starting or resuming play.

- 5. Rain & inclement weather
Golf is often played in the rain. If the course is experiencing light to moderate rain, we expect tournament play to start on time and remain on time. In the event that your tournament cannot begin or resume, due to heavy or severe weather conditions, rain checks will be issued unless an alternate rain date can be negotiated.

- 6. Lightning
If lightning is present or becomes a threat, warning horns will be sounded. It is required that all golfers leave the course or proceed to one of our rain shelters until the ALL CLEAR horn is sounded.

If you have questions Please call us. (585) 624-1490
